Ask most CDA members and they'll tell you that the Association's meetings are a most valuable part of membership because of the unique opportunities for meeting and networking with other delivery company owners and executives. They'll also tell you that the meetings are of great value because of information that isn't available from any other source.

Hear about the latest going on within your association including our Social Media, featured speaker:

Mr. Joe Pasqual, Co-Founder and Owner of . He has years of experience in this area, is on the cutting edge of today's most useful methods, and has agreed to create a presentation on Social Media exclusively for our membership. This is clearly an important topic and should prove to be of great value to all.

Our guest speaker has donated his services and his company plans to video his presentation for use in their own marketing efforts. This could also result in good future publicity for the CDA as our members and guests may be in the video. (Registration for the dinner includes signing a release form by attendees allowing Dotstudioz to use the video and photos of the dinner presentation.)
